Head Coach - Jeff Neubauer

Fifth Season at Fordham: 57-97

15th Season Overall: 247-231

Jeff Neubauer, who made an immediate impact in his first year as the head men's basketball coach at Fordham by leading the Rams to one of their most successful seasons in almost a decade, enters his fifth season on Rose Hill in 2019-2020.

In his inaugural year at Fordham, Neubauer led the Rams to a 17-14 overall record, 8-10 in the Atlantic 10, and an appearance in the 2016 CollegeInsiders.com Tournament (CIT), Fordham's first postseason appearance since 1992. The 17 overall wins and eight conference wins were the most since 2006-2007. The Rams went 14-5 in the Rose Hill Gym, the most home wins ever in school history.

The Rams also used another Neubauer specialty to reach their success in 2015-16, hitting a then school-record 243 long-range field goals.

In 2016-2017, the Rams were one of four Atlantic 10 teams to have a winning record in conference road games (5-4) with the five road conference wins tying the squad with the 2006-2007 team for most A-10 road wins in a season.

At home, Fordham continued its non-conference dominance in the Rose Hill Gym in 2016-2017, going 5-2, and the Rams are now 28-7 in non-conference home games over the past four years.

In Neubauer's first two years on Rose Hill, the Rams won 15 Atlantic 10 games, one more conference victory than the previous seven years combined, including Fordham's first ever win over VCU in 2016-2017.

Prior to joining the Rams, Neubauer served as the head coach at Eastern Kentucky for ten years, leading the Colonels to five 20-win seasons, including in each of his last three years, and five trips to national postseason tournaments, including a berth in the 2014 NCAA Championships where the Colonels nearly upset second-seeded Kansas in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Neubauer's 188 career wins at Eastern Kentucky is second only to Paul S. McBrayer's 214 at the school and his overall mark as the Colonels' leader is 188-134.

Neubauer's last five seasons were like none other at Eastern Kentucky. The Colonels' 101 victories over that stretch are the most during any five-year period in school history. EKU won a school-record 25 games in 2012-13 and accumulated 70 victories over the past three seasons.

Despite being picked to finish third in the Ohio Valley Conference East Division in 2014-2015, Neubauer guided the Colonels to a first place finish, earning the No. 2 seed in the OVC tournament. The Colonels finished the year 21-12, falling in the quarterfinals of the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT).

In 2013-2014, Neubauer led the Colonels to the Ohio Valley Conference title as Eastern Kentucky won three games in three days at the tournament. The Colonels finished the season with a 24-10 mark and were second in the nation in turnover margin, fifth in three-point field goals/game and sixth in steals.

Following the 2013-2014 season, Neubauer was named one of 15 finalists for the 2014 Hugh Durham Award, presented annually to the nation's top mid-major coach. He was also selected as the 2013 National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 19 Coach of the Year.

Neubauer's 2012-13 EKU squad finished 25-10, setting the school record for wins in a season, and earned a spot in the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT). Eastern Kentucky finished with three more wins than the previous program-best of 22, including the program's first victory in a national postseason tournament game in 68 years.

Before arriving at Eastern Kentucky, Neubauer served three seasons as the top assistant at West Virginia under head coach John Beilein where he helped fuel the Mountaineers' rapid rise to national prominence.

Neubauer served under Beilein at the University of Richmond for five years before heading to West Virginia. The Spiders won 100 games during that time and earned a berth in the 1998 NCAA Championship.

Neubauer, a native of Slidell, La., played point guard at La Salle University for head coach William "Speedy" Morris. The Explorers went 30-2 and earned an NCAA tournament berth in Neubauer's freshman season. La Salle accumulated two more postseason berths and an overall record of 83-36 during his four years on the squad. Neubauer served as a team captain as a senior and earned honorable mention GTE All-Academic® accolades as a cum laude graduate in finance in 1993.

Neubauer and his wife, Martina, were married in June of 2016. They reside in Bronxville, N.Y.

with 19 for the Rams.

- The Colonials have won 20 of the last 25 and 26 of the last 32 meetings
- George Washington has won all 16 of the 17 games played in Washington, D.C., and ten of the 17 played in the Rose Hill Gym.
- The Colonials also won two of the three games played on a neutral court.
- The largest margin of victory for George Washington was 26 (93-67 on Feb. 8, 2014).
- The largest margin of victory for Fordham was 17 (67-50 on Feb. 12, 1969).

THIRD TIME A CHARM?

- After defeating George Washington twice in the regular season, Fordham will be looking to beat a team three times in one season first the first time since 1991.
- In 1991 the Rams knocked off Bucknell three times, including in the first round of the Patriot League Championship.

LIMPING RAMS

- Over the past few weeks, the Fordham squad has been bitten by the injury bug.
- Senior guard Antwon Portley was the first to suffer an injury, injuring his leg in the James Madison game and missing the seven contests before returning to action at Saint Louis.
- Chuba Ohams suffered an injury during pregame warmups in the La Salle game and has undergone season-ending knee surgery.
- Senior guard Erten Gazi missed four games with an injury (concussion) before returning for the George Washington game on January 22.
- Gazi then sat out the five more games with the injury before returning to action on February 16 vs. Duquesne.
- More recently, junior guard Ivan Raut missed six games with an elbow injury before returning for the game at La Salle on February 19.
- Sophomore forward Onyi Eyisi missed the Dayton game, returned for four games, and then suffered a foot injury against Duquesne that caused him to miss the past six games.
- On the year, Fordham has lost 54 player-games to injury.

YOUNG RAMS STEPPING UP

- The one positive to the injuries to the upperclassmen is that the young Rams have stepped up their games.
- Over the past 17 games, 60.7% of Fordham's scoring has come from freshmen and sophomores (578 of 953 points).
- This was fully evident in the Davidson game where freshmen and sophomores accounted for 57 of the 62 points scored (91.9%).

FORDHAM FIRST IN THREE-POINTERS

Did you know???? Fordham was the first team in the NCAA to use the three-point shot? The first time a three-point shot was used experimentally in a game was on February 7, 1945 when Columbia defeated Fordham, 73-58. The three-point line was set at 21 feet from the basket and Columbia scored 11 “long goals” to Fordham’s nine. Also, free throwers had an option to take their shots from the regular 15-foot distance for one point or from 21 feet for two points. Eight “long fouls” were made during the game.

The game also featured a 12-foot wide free throw lane, a move that would be adopted by the NCAA eleven years later.

- Against George Washington, freshman and sophomores accounted for 83.1% of the scoring (49 of 59 points) while at Saint Louis the young Rams scored 82.1% of the team’s points (32 of 39), in the St. Bonaventure game 78.2% came from the youngens (43 of 55) while at Dayton it was 71.4% (40 of 56).
- On the year, freshman and sophomores are responsible for 52.8% of Fordham’s points (920 of 1744).
- In Atlantic 10 play, freshmen and sophomores have accounted for 60.8% of the team’s scoring (607 of 999).

FORDHAM GETS DEFENSIVE

- The Fordham Rams are strong on the defensive end in 2019-2020.
- The Rams are holding their opponents to an average of 62.0 ppg, tops in the Atlantic 10, while Fordham foes have shot .402 (636-1583) from the field, second among A-10 teams.
- Fordham is tenth in the NCAA in scoring defense.

FORDHAM DEFENSE GOES UNDER

- The 2019-2020 Fordham defense is holding opponents in check.
- In 25 of the 30 games this season, the Rams have held their opponent to under its season scoring average.
- In 15 of those 25 games, the Rams held the opponent to more than ten points under its season average.
- The only teams to score above its season average against Fordham this year are Western Kentucky (by 1.4 points), Davidson twice (by 4.1 and 7.1 points), Rhode Island (by 1.3), and Saint Joseph’s by (4.6).

Rose Hill Gym Gets New Floor for 2019-2020

The historic Rose Hill Gymnasium has a new look thanks to a summer project that replaced the floor and subfloor of the 95-year-old facility.

- The project began in May right after graduation and was completed in mid-October.
- After the old floor and subfloor was removed, a new subfloor was installed along with various fiber optic cables to aid in the Rams’ video streaming capabilities.
- The project was finished with the installation of a new wood floor with a new look, featuring more of the natural wood color.

Rose Hill Gym to Host Federation Championship

After hosting the Catholic High School Athletic Association for decades, Fordham University Rose Hill Gym will host another championship beginning in 2020, the Federation Basketball Tournament of Champions.

"This is not only a great day for Fordham, it's a great day for New York City basketball," said Fordham head coach Jeff Neubauer. "We are beyond excited to host the New York state basketball championships in the Basketball Capital of the World."

In a release issued by the New York State Federation of Secondary School Athletic Associations (NYSFSSAA) today, Fordham University will serve as hosts of the host the tournament from 2020-2022. The 2020 championship will be held from March 27-29. It is the first time the tournament will be held in New York City.

Fordham senior associate athletic director John Barrett and assistant men's basketball coach Michael DePaoli made a winning presentation to the tournament directors on December 9 at the Monroe Woodbury School District's Education Center. Fordham was chosen over the Greater Glens Falls Basketball Amateur Athletic Association and St. John's University.

"After a good discussion following each presentation, the vote taken by the Executive Committee supports a new direction for the Federation Tournament," said Federation President Donal Buckley. "All three organizations presented solid bids and were ready to host a quality event for us. However, Fordham's historic gym and location in the city convinced the committee."

The tournament features boys and girls basketball champions from the New York State Public High School Athletic Association (public schools), CHSAA (Catholic schools), AISAA (independent schools) and PSAL (New York City public schools) in Class AA, A and B in a final four style tournament to be named best in New York.

Fordham will continue to host the CHSAA Championships with all three rounds contested in the Rose Hill Gym beginning this year.

HISTORICALLY SPEAKING

- Fordham University's home court, the Rose Hill Gymnasium which was named as one of the four "Cathedrals of College Basketball" by ESPN The Magazine, is the oldest gym still being used by an NCAA Division I basketball team. The 3,200-seat gym opened on January 16, 1925 for a game between Fordham and Boston College. The Rams took the opener 46-16 in a game refereed by one of the University's most prominent alumni, "The Fordham Flash", Frankie Frisch.
- The Gym was one of the largest on-campus facilities at the time it was built, earning the nickname "The Prairie" because of its large floor space. The original configuration had no end zone stands and a seating capacity of 2,100 but several standing room crowds of 6,000 were reported in the late 1920's. Since its opening in 1925, the gym has seen numerous renovations, adding new seating, scoreboards and public address systems.
- The arena has been in continuous use by Fordham's basketball teams since its opening with the exception of the World War II years, when it was used for a barracks.
- The Rose Hill Gym has been the site of many legendary college and high school basketball games including Kareem Abdul Jabbar's final high school game and the 1988 Tolentine-Archbishop Molloy Catholic High School Athletic Association (CHSAA) Championship game, billed by the New York Newsday as the "Best High School Game of the 80's".
- The Rose Hill Gym has been named as one of the Top Ten arenas by USA

- Burquest was also honored for having the highest GPA as well as being a four-year honoree.

RAMS TO RENEW RIVALRY WITH IONA IN 2020-21

- Fordham University and Iona College will resume its men's basketball series beginning next year with a game in the Rose Hill Gym.
- Fordham will host Iona on November 16, the first of four home-and-home games between the Rams and the Gaels.
- Fordham and Iona have met 63 times in the all-time series which the Rams lead 32-31. The last meeting came on December 3, 2006, a 70-54 Fordham win in the Rose Hill Gym.

Today and was featured in the 2011-12 ESPN The Magazine College Basketball issue as one of four Cathedrals of College Basketball.

WHAT'S NEXT?

- The winner of the Fordham-George Washington game will face six-seeded Duquesne University on Thursday, March 12, at 8:30 p.m.
- The Rams fell to the Dukes twice this year, 58-56 in overtime, in Pittsburgh on January 15, and 59-54 in the Rose Hill Gym on February 16.

RAMS SETTING DEFENSIVE RECORDS

- The 2019-2020 Rams are leading the Atlantic 10, and ranking 10th in the NCAA, in scoring defense, holding opponents to 62.0 ppg.
- That is the second lowest scoring defense by a Fordham team since the addition of the shot clock prior to the 1985-1986 season.
